President's Corner:

Hello fellow Day Makers!

Wow, the first month as your President went by fast. For those that have not served as President of this club, please consider adding your name to the list. The rest of the members make this position almost effortless. October meetings were chances to be informed about Kiwanis youth safety, patches on our flags, Kwik trip card processes and local community issues including the Landing and the School Tech Referendum. We also sold some roses !

The month of November is often associated with Thanksgiving. With that in mind I would like to take some time to thank the members that agreed to lead our committees this year:

Rick Johnson for leading community services. This committee has the most members and always has something for you to help with.

Linda Rouhoff is transitioning from being President by leading two committees – Membership and Early Childhood. Plenty of opportunities waiting for your assistance.

Helen Kolb and Ken Reding lead Youth Services. K-kids and Key club keep this committee busy. Aims committee. Keep those cards and letters going out as needed.

Ruth Vrieze continues to lead our Human and Spiritual Aims committee. Keep those cards and letters going out as needed.

Jim Schwinghammer is now leading Fund Raising and Operations. Keep those Kwik Trip cards and other fun activities coming!

Greg Hain leads the Public Relations group. They have been able to get a Facebook page again and would appreciate any input to get the word out about what our fantastic members are doing.

Jim Cook continues to amaze as the Program chair. They appreciate your help and suggestions for ways to keep our meetings informational and entertaining.

THANK YOU !!!

Another person that I knew was critical to this group but didn't realize how critical is our Secretary/Treasurer Jack Zierdt. Thanks Jack for all you do!

Another thank you to all of you that are able to attend our meetings, participate in activities, and continue to do the “little things” that make our club what it is. I could probably list every member with something they are known for doing, can you?

Of course, I can't end without a reminder to continue to look for new members -family, friends, neighbors, former working associates, etc. Sometimes you just have to ask. If you need an application form I'm sure Linda or someone on her membership committee would be glad to provide one to you. Perhaps we should all carry one with us just in case ?

Until next time.....

Janet Cederholm, President
